WEDDING BROCHURE

"Our wedding far outreached our expectations. The whole day was absolutely amazing we couldn't fault a thing really. Bobby was truly excellent as were all of the Hoo staff both day and night. It was the best wedding either of us have ever been to and all of our guests agreed. They want us to have our first anniversary celebrations there. Thankyou so much for your help with making our day the best of our lives. ...I will definitely be recommending the Hoo and your services to anyone that asks."

MANSION HOUSE WEDDINGS

Steeped in romance and glamour – and the setting for films such as Four Weddings and a Funeral - the Mansion House at Luton Hoo Hotel, Golf & Spa is one of the most impressive wedding venues in Bedfordshire and beyond.

Originally built as a magnificent private house, Luton Hoo has a romantic royal pedigree as Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh celebrated their wedding anniversaries at Luton Hoo in the early years of their marriage. Today some of the lavish rooms they stayed in form part of the Queen's Suite.

Our stunning suites for weddings and receptions include a former Orthodox Russian Chapel, which will make every bride feel like a princess. Whether you are planning a lavish wedding party for 120 guests or an intimate gathering for family and friends, the Mansion House will provide memories that last a lifetime.

As weddings aren't just about the big day itself we can offer you a host of ways to celebrate your forthcoming nuptials and enjoy a post-wedding event.

We can stage themed pre-wedding weekends and short breaks so the bride and groom can take time out with their friends. Start the celebrations the day before the wedding with a champagne afternoon tea, private dinner for family and friends or some well-earned time in the spa to soothe away any nerves.

The day after you say 'I do' relive the memories of the day with a champagne breakfast for the wedding party in a private dining room. These are just some suggestions and we would be delighted to tailor special packages to suit your individual needs.
