REGISTRAR INFORMATION

In order to marry within England and Wales both parties to the marriage are required to attend their district register office (by appointment) to provide "Notice of Marriage" - you must have been resident within the district where you provide your notice of marriage for at least 7 clear days and nights . Following notice of marriage at least 28 clear days must elapse before the ceremony can take place and the marriage must take place within a year. For example if you were to attend the appointment on 01.06 .2020 you could marry from the 30.06.20 until 01.06.21 subject to availability of staff and opening times.

To provide notice of marriage at your local registration office will cost you approximately £40.00 per person and the registration office will be able to confirm what documentation you need to provide.
